ABOUT 100 people packed the Drawing Room at the Civic Theatre yesterday to enjoy a morning performance by NZTrio. The Mums, Dads and Bubs Cushion concert was a great success, and an opportunity for the whole family to enjoy a Southland Festival of the Arts performance. Cellist Ashley Brown, pianist Sarah Watkins, and violinist Justine Cornack entertained the crowd. NZTrio will play a lunchtime concert today in the Drawing Room (1pm-2pm), and an open performance workshop-masterclass from 4pm to 6pm. Entry is $5 at the door. The trio's main performance will be held at the Civic Theatre on Saturday at 7.30pm. Tickets are available through TicketDirect and are $40 ($15 for students).
